

Praying Head to Toe

Prayer is both a privilege and a force to be reckoned with. God commands it, He hears us when we engage in it, and He acts in response to it. Amazing, isn't it?

Trouble is, sometimes we don't know how to pray because our situation is so difficult that words and wisdom escape us. Sometimes we get lazy about doing it or we fall into a spiritual rut and repeat the same request every day: "God, bless me, bless my kids, bless my pastor and missionaries everywhere. And keep everyone safe, too. Amen."

That's how I sounded until I learned how to pray God's Word. Everything changed as I learned to weave His promises and commands into my prayers. My understanding of what to ask grew. So did my faith. And so did the numbers of answered prayers I witnessed.

Several years later, when I wrote my first book (10-Minute Time Outs for Moms), I included more than 130 Scripture-based prayers so my readers could receive the same benefit. I did the same with 10-Minute Time Outs for Busy Women (re-released in 2012 as Peaceful Moments to Begin Your Day: Devotions for Busy Women), and in Moving from Fear to Freedom: A Woman's Guide to Peace in Every Situation.

When my kids were in junior high school, I developed the following strategy for praying on their behalf. These Scripture prayers can be used not only for kids, but for anyone regardless of age. Put them to use, and feel free to pass them along to your friends so they can implement them, too.

- MIND - Philippians 4:8 - "Dear Father, please grant _____ a desire to think on things that are true, honourable, right, pure, lovely, and of good repute. May his thoughts dwell on things that are excellent and worthy of praise."

Psalms 94:19 - "Father, please delight _____'s soul with Your consolations when anxious thoughts multiply within his mind."
- EYES - Proverbs 3:7 - "Father, I pray that _____ will not be wise in her own eyes. Teach her to depend on You and not on her own strengths or abilities. Teach her to look to Your word for wisdom. May she fear You and turn from evil."
